

Council Nominations Form 2018

The Alberta College of Occupational Therapists is legislated to act in the public interest. In doing so, Council considers the views of members and the public. Council as a whole actively engages with stakeholders to fully understand diverse views and brings these into their deliberations at the Council table. Given this, please answer the following questions:

1. What is your understanding of the fundamental differences between a regulatory college and a professional association?
2. What is your understanding of the role of a Council member? What do you believe are some of the challenges that Council members face when the public interest does not align with their personal/professional beliefs?
3. Point to specific examples in your life experience where you have demonstrated leadership.

Council's job is to govern the College by clearly and transparently stating the outcomes it expects the College to produce. It uses a system of governance that delegates achievement of those outcomes to the Registrar. The Registrar is then authorized to choose the most appropriate means to achieve them, within boundaries set by the Council. This style of governance allows Council to provide strategic leadership, without getting into the details of day-to-day operations. Given this, please answer the following questions:

4. What has been your experience in determining what future-based outcomes should be for an organization?
5. What are the strengths you would bring to that process?

Council members are expected to deliberate openly and candidly, seeking to understand diverse viewpoints. Council decisions are made through a majority rule voting process. Once a decision has been made, Council members are expected to respect this decision and speak with one voice. Given this, please answer the following questions:

6. What has been your experience in deliberating in a diverse group?
7. If others were to describe how you operate in groups, what would they say?

5. Statement of Experience and Bio

Attach a statement of professional experience (a summary of work experience or a copy of curriculum vitae) along with a short biography.
